1. On 14 March, a group of Soviet soldiers were quartered in a house on Friedlaender Strasse, Anklam (N 54/U 99). This building had been confiscated the day before. The officers wore blue-bordered golden epaulets and the EM wore blue epaulets without piping. The property confiscated was previously assigned to the Kreiskommandantur. It was turned over to civilians after the kommandatura had left.
2. On 17 March, a civilian who had to evacuate the building said that one captain, one lieutenant, one NCO, and 15 EM had arrived with their hand baggage. No equipment or motor vehicles were allegedly available. It was rumored that the soldiers who had arrived were an advance detail and that the former officer candidate school on Friedlaender Strasse or Hospital Strasse was to be utilized for troops. *
3. No indications of a planned reoccupation of the airfield were observed up to 17 March. **

25X1A* [REDACTED] Comment. The arrival of this air force unit has not been confirmed by other sources. The mission of this unit is not known.

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment. The airfield is not occupied although the landing field is serviceable. To date, no reports have been received from other sources indicating that the field is to be occupied by an air force unit.
